

Ava Adonia - press releases

ARTIST BIO

Ava Adonia is contrast.

Ballad meets dark pop, dance beats meet horror movie. Her music tells bittersweet stories, like one of nostalgia, growing up, dreams and nightmares, accompanied by an electronic dark pop sound. True to the motto „finding escape“, she creates her own world in which nothing seems to match at first sight. But upon a closer look, recognize a shade of dark can be found in everything.

Inspirations for her genre-bending songs come from a quote from „Pretty Little Liars“, a smokey basement party techno beat or a late night FaceTime call with her best friend.

The only similarity? That there is none.

Ava Adonia is live. Whether it's with her live band, together with just her guitarist or her drummer, or completely alone, as she brings her songs to the stage, Ava Adonia creates a melancholic explosion with her performance.

In September of 2023 Ava was awarded the „Kulturförderpreis“ by the Kulturverein Neunkirchen and in October she was part of the FPC Saar, a talent promotion program for female* music producers.

NEW SINGLE “NOVEMBER“

Cold, yet somehow warm. Metallic, yet somehow soft. This is the pendulum Ava Adonia swings in her latest single „november“.

What started as a harmless piano ballad, Ava transformed into an experimental dark pop artwork. From the first note to the finished song, everything came from her. That's how „november“ turned into the song you listen to in the backseat of the car while watching the raindrops on the window.
